A message from Mrs Wathen & Mr Spink.....

Here we are—the end of week 4! Time is really flying; only three weeks left of the school year.

This week we had Lower Key Stage 2 and Upper Key Stage 2 Sports day. It was a lovely sunny day and the children really enjoyed themselves—taking part in races and sporting events throughout the day. (See our Facebook page for pictures).

On Thursday, Year 5 visited the Shadwell Lane Synagogue, as part of their Religious Education curriculum. They were greeted by members of the community who told us lots about the Jewish faith. The children also got to see real Jewish scrolls, see photos of a Jewish wedding and hear about what happens at a Bar Mitzva ceremony. It really was a fascinating visit: the building was beautiful, calm and welcoming.

On Monday, assuming the weather stays nice, we will have our postponed Sports Day (information on the next page). Have a lovely weekend!
