Fact or Opinion?

Snakes can be wondrous and awe-inspiring. Many consider them to be a creature to fear and avoid, whilst some believe them to be full of grace and beauty. As well as being a fearsome predator in the wild, snakes can also be a fun pet to look after at home.

Whatever you think of snakes, there are more than 3000 different species and at least one type of snake can be found in every continent – except for Antarctica. This is because, as a reptile, snakes are cold-blooded: they do not produce their own body heat. Any snake living in Antarctica would freeze to death very quickly.

Snakes come in many different sizes. The thread snake will only grow to about 3.9 inches long, whereas the reticulated python can grow to longer than 6 metres!

Snakes are carnivorous, meaning that they eat meat. Some people think that all snakes kill their prey with venom. Only a few species do this, such as the cobra and viper. Most snakes will eat their prey whole. A snake's jaw is capable of unhinging, so that it can swallow prey 75% larger than itself.

Fact or Opinion?

Today, I'm here to interview Leicester City goalkeeper, Kasper Schmeichel.

Interviewer: Thank you so much for speaking to me today. May I begin by saying well done for your amazing season? Leicester City are the 15/16 Premier League champions, much to the surprise of many.

Kasper: Thank you. We had an interesting season, that's for sure. It's all thanks to a great manager and some really talented players.

Interviewer: Your opponents found it difficult to get goals past you. Why do you think this is?

Kasper: Well, I'm over 6 feet tall and weigh 12 stone, which means that I'm tall and agile enough to cover a lot of ground between the posts.

Interviewer: Your father is the former Manchester United goalkeeper, Peter Schmeichel. Many consider him to be a legend, and one of the best goalkeepers of his generation. Has he taught you much?

Kasper: Lots! Many people say I'm lucky enough to share many of my father's qualities. I seem to have inherited his skills in goal.

Interviewer: Many thanks Kasper and good luck with the next season.
